

Read the interview below and fill the correct words from the box below into the gaps of the interview.

weakness	empathize	balance	abundance	lack
moods	prejudiced	neglected	strength	air pilot
pay attention	open-minded	misinterpret	flight attendant

Interviewer: I'm Postolache Ionuț and I am here interviewing my colleague Andreea, for the final video of the "HOME" project. Tell your whole story from the beginning when you were younger and everything was fine and what happened after your mother left you and your father.

Andreea: Firstly I want to say that my mother didn't leave me and my father; we left her because I was(1) by her. My story is simple: my parents stayed together with me until my first birthday, then I moved with my aunt, my father and my grandmother, they were all worked for me, but it was a moment when my father had to go abroad to work. He worked in Germany, Italy and currently in UK. I was younger so I didn't realise too many things. All that I know is that I was missing my father. I was sad and it was a time when I didn't want to talk to him because I was angry. I went through different ... (2) and situations and I learnt to get along alone. Even in present I live with my grandmother and I see my dad every 9 or 10 months.

Interviewer: How do you feel only with your father?

Andreea: My father is my friend, he didn't force me to do anything, he left me to make my own mistakes to learn from them. He is funny and he never allowed me to see him upset. I had everything I want and never got a "no" from him.

Interviewer: Why do you consider that your father is a Superman for you?

Andreea: He is a Superman for me, he will do everything he can to make us feel very happy. He'll try to solve our problems and keep us worry free. He's not perfect but he's my superhero, he is my ...(3) and is the only Superman I know.

Interviewer: How did you feel when your father left you, too and went to the UK?

Andreea: My father left for me to have a better future that is not restricted by the ...(4) of money. I really like the idea of moving to UK because most of my family is there and I will also live in UK.

Interviewer: How did you feel without your parents and what kind of impact it had on you?

Andreea: I was not alone, there were the other family members who tried to cover this gap. But there were moments when I wanted to be together as a united and strong family. This made me ... (5) with some people, to have mercy, and doesn't live in a fantasy world.

Interviewer: How is your relationship to your father?

Andreea: The relationship with my father is the same as a few years ago, when he was home, maybe not so open because he wasn't with me in my difficult times and he doesn't know how to help me or what advice to give me, but we have a very close and based on trust and truth relationship.

Interviewer: How was your relationship with your grandparents when you lived there and how is it now?

Andreea: I live with my grandmother and our relationship was like a daughter-mother, she was always with me even when I refused to be helped. She's an ... (6) person, we also have fights, but never so big that can stop me from living with her.

Interviewer: Tell me what is your family's plan for the future.

Andreea: Well, I will go to a college of tourism in Romania, after that I will do courses for ...(7) and I will leave my country for a better life.

Interviewer: Thank you for your honest and helpful answers.

Andreea: You're welcome.