Background story

My grandparents came separately to Catalonia to work, and met here.

Three of them are from Galicia, two from Ourense province, and the other from Lugo province, and one from Andalucía, of the city of Línea de la Concepción (Line of the Conception), next to the English city of Gibraltar.

Both couples had numerous children, including my parents.

My parents met in his hometown, Barcelona, when they were 20 years old, and they had 2 children: my sister and me. My father works in a hotel since 1985, and my mother in a union.

How do I feel?

How my grandparents are from Galicia, I go every summer there to see my Galician family, and it's my second home, even I speak the language. I had Catalan and Galician culture and customs. I want to be a scientist, for a big multinational, dealing with biological tissue, or a historian, and work for the National History Museum of Catalonia, or be autonomous; I have no clear my future...
