My mother is from Andalucía and my father is from Barcelona, Catalonia.

My mother was born in 1978, the same year as my father. She went to Barcelona when she was ten years old. She met my father there. He's working in a hospital. My mother works in a telephone company. She has one older sister and two younger brothers. Her sister is in Galicia, one of her brothers is in France and the other one is in Mallorca.

I was born in the year 2000 in Barcelona. I feel lucky to be born here because I like Catalonia. Andalucía is another part of my country but it has a different culture. I like it too because it is different from here and you can meet people with a different way of thinking.
